Subject line: Partner in your Teen's College and Career Planning with Tomorrow Ready Texas

I'm excited to share a new resource to help you explore college and career options with your teen. Tomorrow Ready Texas is a new website from one of my favorite sources for college and career planning, Texas OnCourse.

One thing I love about this new resource is that it provides customized info related to your teen's specific needs and aspirations. There are many different options for your teen: four- and two-year colleges, trade schools, military pathways, and more. At Tomorrow Ready Texas, you'll find personalized step-by-step action plans for all these different options. It includes resources specifically for students with disabilities, and you can also register to receive information for more than one child.

Tomorrow Ready Texas will keep you updated on deadlines and to-dos, so you don't miss opportunities to help your teen succeed. All you need to do is sign up for a free account.

Tomorrow Ready Texas is a free state resource available to all parents and guardians in Texas.
